

Labour shortage

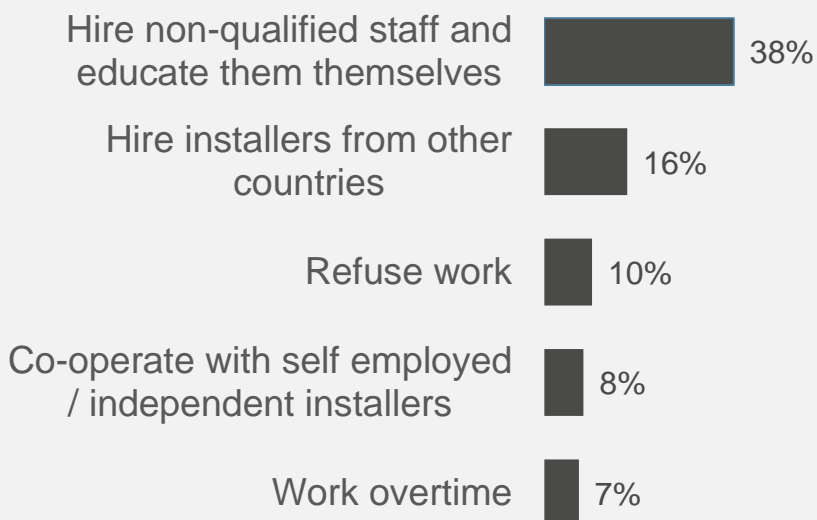

European Electrical Installation Monitor

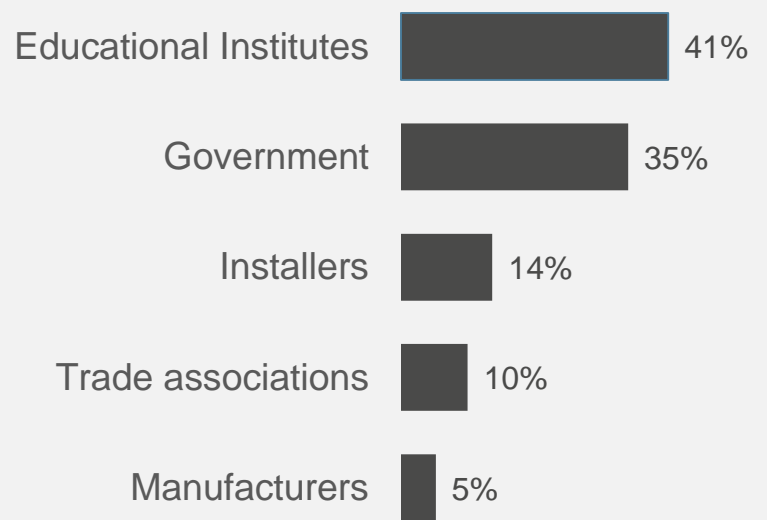

Share of installers missing out of projects due to lack of capacity

Top-5 solutions to deal with labour shortage in the future

Responsibility to promote career in the installation industry

Results per country* Example for Spain

50%

of the installers experience shortage of labour.

The installers could increase their turnover with 19% if more qualified personnel was available.

47%

of the installers find that labour shortage is a driver for prefabricated elements.

*Information for other counties and full lists of answers are available in the report.

Information to be found in the report

- Insights into the (development of) activities of installation companies.
- Development of turnover and order book of installation companies since Q1 2014.
- Every quarter an interesting, current theme will be discussed.
- Etc.

